

How to study for and take an open book test:

STUDY:

Read the chapter (including the visual summary) multiple times

Review the vocabulary

Review any worksheets

Create an outline including page numbers to make it easier to find information

Example:

Ancient Europe – page 295

    Ancient Greece – 295

        Physical geography, city-states, Athens, democracy, Philip II

    The Roman Empire – 296

    Christianity – 297

    Rome's Decline – 297

Expansion of Europe – page 298

TAKE:

You can use your vocab, worksheets, outline and book

Take advantage of the glossary (vocabulary) and index (location of topics)